Central Plains Cancer Services 24-Hour Relay

In February, Central Plains Cancer Services (CPCS) held a unique 24-Hour Relay event at Central Plains RecPlex. As a community, we walked consecutively for 24 hours in support of the Kids Fighting Cancer Program!

Congratulations to CPCS, Beckie Verwey, and all the local businesses and supporters for raising a total of $34,132 in funds for the program!

All funds raised will benefit the families whose children are facing a cancer diagnosis in the Central Plains Region.

Southport is proud to have sponsored and been part of such a great event and to see everyone's involvement!
